

CORK MAYOR REPORTED TO BE DYING

LONDON, Aug. 27.—(International News Service.)—Sweeney, hunger-stricken lord mayor of Cork, was reported weaker in his cell at Brixton jail early today. He is not expected to live many hours more.

Throughout the morning a huge crowd of sympathizers, prohibited from assembling in front of the prison, paraded the main thoroughfares of the vicinity, passing the jail time and again waving Sinn Fein flags and singing revolutionary songs though with half restrained voice, owing to the presence of large forces of police and military.

There were no disorders or casualties during the night. The police and soldiers instructed to go "easy" for fear of large-scale clashes, merely warned some of the demonstrators who carried bombs, revolvers or other weapons. Every possible precaution was taken against outbreaks.

Military squads were hidden at many advantageous places, ready to plunge upon the crowd the moment a clash developed.
